Is there anything your child is missing about school?

Friends but we FaceTime.

Missing her friends, not seeing other kids and being a single child make her sad sometimes. She says she doesn't like learning without her friends.

Friends and being in class, looking after the little ones

Friends and teachers

Friends

His Teacher and his friends and just the school environment.

Friends, very lonely at the moment as an only child.

Their friends

He is really missing school, mainly his friends and the structure/routine.

She misses her friends and teacher although extremely grateful for the stories every evening from Mrs Ferris

Friends

Friends and school dinners

Friends, learning resources

Socialising and teachers

Her teacher, friends and playtime

Interacting with other children.

They are both missing their teachers and friends but mainly the support because I am not a teacher but I try my best

They are both missing their teacher, the classroom & how engaging both the teacher & classroom is. They also miss their friends greatly.

Mrs Baker

Their friends and the Structure

He misses seeing his teacher. He speaks about him constantly.

Friends and teacher

Face to face contact with the children. Maybe face time!

Friends

Seeing friends and staff

Friends! Group activities.

Friends and food.

Friends and routine

Everything - particularly the structure, learning and the social aspects

Social aspects. Collaborative learning.

She is missing her friends and finds it slightly easier to learn without a crazy toddler in the mix

Is there any extra support the school could offer during the school closures?

No thank you. Happy with how things are x

You're doing a fab job with comms, weekly work set and Teddy loves getting house points for everything he completes. Reception don't seem to get many house points in comparison for the same work completed.

Weekly One to one with her teacher, phone or online is fine. Online classes if possible but understand it's not available to all. Personal homework pack targeting children with EHCP

Extra work when required

No

We would prefer real reading books, the online ones try to be interactive which is just too distracting!

Maybe occasional class webchats if possible for those who would like to join in

No I think the school has been exceptional in these tough times and very supportive and helpful

Explain more about the subject

No thank you for all you have done and continue to do. We find it tricky because we're both working but honestly don't know what more you could do to help!

No.

Nothing I can think of the teachers has been amazing. Some days I find it hard to motivate Alana

For me trying to juggle working (full time) from home whilst trying to homeschool 3 children (age 5 - reception, 9 Y5 & 11 Y7) incredibly difficult & sometimes overwhelming, but I don't feel that the school can do anything differently or additionally to make this any easier. It is tough all round.

No, doing a brilliant job

For us it's having the time around working and ways to get Stan to engage with the tasks active learning is better the project has been easier to Facilitate than the block learning of English and maths

The support has been brilliant. Getting my child's work looked at and responded to on a daily basis is wonderful. And the fact that his still achieving house points and rewards for his efforts is really keeping him motivated. The work is varied and interesting, overall I'm extremely pleased with the outstanding support we are receiving during this very challenging time.

Not sure

Cant think of anything

I feel you are doing an amazing job at giving us a range of things to do at home and we pick what we want to do from that. We have found it has been harder to motivate this week with not having maths and English.

Maybe a class zoom/FaceTime for older children?

Need more advice on how to make kids do their work..

Zoom lessons for core subjects

N/a

No

No I think her teacher is being fab as are all the staff in communicating with us and our child

Not sure

No

No your doing a great job

Volume of work not an issue just impossible to engage child at all and very reluctant to do anything that isn't a computer game

Nope

No, you are all doing so much, and we really appreciate everything you are doing to keep us all happy!
