

Year 2 Term 3

Australian ADVENTURE

I know how evidence is collected and used to make historical facts.

I know how to use dates when talking about specific events.

I know that Aboriginal people are groups of people that have lived in one area for many thousands of years.

I know that debugging is fixing issues with my program.

I know that I can predict the outcome of a program by following the steps.

I know I can break tasks down into chunks (decomposition) to make them more manageable.

I know how to jump and land safely using apparatus, including from a variety of heights, directions and landings.

I know how to model linking and mirroring of low-level shapes. Including balancing & travel with a partner using mirroring technique.

I know what a healthy diet consists of.

I know you must exercise to stay healthy.

I know what a food chain is.

I know the differences between tissue and crepe paper.

I know my best results will be if I glue on an even surface.

I know I can create texture by mixing materials.

I know that unison is everyone singing at the same time.

I know why we need to warm up our voices.

I know some songs have a chorus or a response/answer.

I know that songs have a musical style.

I know that Australia is the smallest continent but one of the largest countries on Earth.

I know that Australia's capital is Canberra.

I know that there are different climate zones in Australia.

I know how to explain how I played my part in a group and the parts other people played to create a product.

I know how our skills complemented each other.

I know how to grate.

I know how to peel.

I know people should eat at least 5 portions of fruit and vegetables a day.

I know what commitment means to us and to Muslims by knowing about how Muslims pray 5 times a day.

I know the name and meaning of some religious symbols.

